

LCC Board of Directors – Recruitment 2 Positions

LeeCaring Communities (LCC) is a private not-for-profit long term care provider located in Edmonton, Alberta. The mission of LCC is to create resident focused communities that are respectful, caring and compassionate, where residents are encouraged to live each day with purpose and belonging. LCC is accredited through CARF International.

At present, LCC operate two Long Term Care communities: The 96 bed Edmonton Chinatown Care Centre located in downtown Edmonton; and the 136 bed HoSome Place located in Edmonton's Southwest MacTaggart neighbourhood. Both communities are part of Alberta's publicly funded continuing care system.

The LCC Board is comprised of 10 volunteer members with diverse personal and professional backgrounds. It is supported by an executive director. LCC is seeking two Board members and is interested in candidates with the following backgrounds:

- Human resources and labour relations
- Long Term Care service delivery and standards
- Community, public, government relations
- Fund Development and communications

More information about LeeCaring Communities can be found on its website:
www.leecaring.ca

Persons interested in joining the LCC Board should submit their resume by June 30th to:

LCC Board of Directors, c/o Truman Severson, Executive Director

By email: tseverson@leecaring.ca